TO : ^{b7C} SAC, NEW YORK

DATE: 3/11/65

FROM :  SAC, BUFFALO (100-16810) (C)

SUBJECT:  MALCOLM X. LITTLE
SM-NOI

Instant letter concerns MALCOLM X. LITTLE's visit to Rochester, N.Y., 2/16-17/65.

Enclosed for New York is

b7D

 may be of assistance to the New York Office in its investigation of the MALCOLM X. Matter.

^{b7C}
^{b7D}  MALCOLM X.'s speech at Corn Hill Methodist Church  and is summarized as follows:

MALCOLM X. opened his talk with a discussion of the Black Revolution in the U. S., Africa, England and France, saying that England and France are having trouble within their countries that has not been publicized because the U. S. Negro problems overwhelm their problems. MALCOLM X. continued that all three countries, England, France and the U. S. have the same problem, pointing out the Western Hemisphere has black people in Brazil, as well as all South America calling them Apo-Americans. He then divided the Western Hemisphere into four classifications:

1. French West Indies ^{b7C}
2. British West Indies
3. Spanish influence, Latin America
4. United States

MALCOLM X. said the U. S., the British and the French all have a common problem, "The African Revolution" calling it the "new mood." He explained the Negro militancy in the U. S. has frightened the white people, but such is not the case in England and France. He then explained the U. S. Negro will never understand the Negro problem if he only considers the local level; he must take the world situation into consideration.

MALCOLM X. said he was a Muslim, stating "I believe in one God, I believe in the brotherhood of man." He explained that in the U. S., society believes in brotherhood, but practically they do not practice brotherhood.

MALCOLM X. said "We believe in no segregation; we are against any form of segregation," saying this society judges a man by the color of his skin; white skin people go forward, black skin people do not move forward.

MALCOLM X. then said that the U. S. cannot justify the dropping bombs in Asia calling this "racism," and was against bombings in this area. He said "racism" is in the U. S. and Rochester. He stated, we are for peace, but the people we are up against are not peaceful.

MALCOLM X. then claimed the press was used to get public opinion for the white people, pointing out the Black community as a criminal area, resulting in the white people believing this situation exists along with turning some Black people against Black people. He said this situation with the press "makes the victims look like the criminal and the criminal look like the victims."

MALCOLM X. proceeded to talk against the war in Africa, calling the bombing of African villages mass murder; black skin against white skin. He claimed the African people struck out for more freedom and it has now influenced those people in the Western Hemisphere to do the same.

According to MALCOLM X., CORE and the NAACP were under investigation prior to the Black Muslim Groups, but when the Black Muslim came along "talking that kind of talk they talk," the white man said "Thank God for the NAACP" and made the NAACP members responsible Negroes; responsible to the white man. The Black Muslim movement, MALCOLM X. said, attracted the most militant youth in the Black community, and the movement was rejected in the U. S. Government because it was not accepted as a bonafide religion. This action on the part of the U. S. Government put the Muslims in a vacuum, preventing the Muslims movement from any action and many members have now become disillusioned.

MALCOLM X. stated he has established a Muslim Mosque in New York City, N.Y., claiming to be based on the real Muslim religion, calling his organization "African American Unity" and their motto is "By any means necessary."

MALCOLM X. said we believe (referring to the African American Unity) in the right to fight for freedom; since the Federal Government, whose hands are tied, has shown an unwillingness to protect the Black man as illustrated by the bombing of churches and murders of Negroes in the South, we must equip ourselves and we will equip ourselves for our fight for freedom.

Detective [REDACTED] Rochester, N.Y. PD, who was present at the Corn Hill Methodist Church at the time MALCOLM X. spoke 2/16/65, identified the following [REDACTED]

4 ARE INDICTED HERE IN MALCOLM X CASE

105-8999*

A grand jury indicted three Negroes yesterday in the slaying of Malcolm X, Black Nationalist leader, and indicted Malcolm's bodyguard for shooting and wounding one of the trio.

Charges of willfully killing Malcolm "with a shotgun and pistols" were made against Thomas Hagan, also known as Talmadge Hayer and Thomas Hayer, 22 years old, of 347 Marshall Street, Paterson, N. J.; Norman 3X Butler, 26, of 661 Rosedale Avenue, the Bronx; and Thomas 15X Johnson, 29, of 932 Bronx Park South, the Bronx.

A separate indictment accused Reubin Francis, under that spelling and also as Reubin X, on one count of first-degree felonious assault for "aiming and discharging a pistol" at Hagan, two counts of second-degree assault and a fourth count of possessing a pistol. Francis, 33, has given his address as 871 East 179th Street, the Bronx.

Hagan is in Bellevue Hospital's prison ward. Butler and Johnson are being held without bail, and Francis, whose bail has been set at $10,000, are to be arraigned in Supreme Court tomorrow. The numbered "X" names are used in the Black Muslim movement, from which Malcolm split in April, 1964.

Malcolm was shot down before 400 persons at a rally Feb. 21 of his Organization of Afro-American Unity in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street.

SUBJECT: NATION OF ISLAM

b2D On 2-5-65, a highly confidential reliable source WHOSE IDENTITY MUST NOT BE DISCLOSED but is available in [REDACTED] furnished the below outlined material.

A 291 page listing of all individuals who have ever joined the NOI through NOI Mosque # 7, NYC, from the time records were apparently first kept at Mosque # 7 (about 1950) until late 1964. The list includes approximately 3800 names, 171 pages of names of men and 120 pages of names of women. About 1450 women and about 2350 men.

The individual listing, in almost every instance, sets forth the full name of the individual, their NOI "X" name, their address(es), and the date they received their "X" name, the latter reflects the date they actually became a member of the NOI. In some instances it includes other information such as telephone number, date of birth, the notation "junior" which indicates they joined the NOI as a youth, or the notation "infant" which indicates they were probably enrolled in the NOI as a child by their parents.

The list does not indicate which individuals are currently active in the NOI.

Two (2) xerox copies of the list of men (171 pages) and two (2) xerox copies of the list of women (120 pages) are being placed in the 1B file of captioned matter where they will be indexed as to true name and "X" name.
The two (identical) lists of men and the two (identical) lists of women are being placed in separate 1B files.
It is noted that because of occasional odd Arabic type names or because of a mistake, the names of some men may be included on the women's list, and vice versa. A copy

"1. National Office Report - [REDACTED] b7c

"The response to both the new YS and the pamphlet has been good. From all areas of the country are coming reports that there is a better response to the ideas of the YSA now than there has been during the late fall and winter months. The rise in general interest in radical ideas and activities was first

NY 100-133479

"reported from Boston and then started to be noticed in New York and in Detroit. The locals are all extremely loaded down with activities.

"Motion: To approve the report.

"Motion passed.

"2. Membership - [REDACTED] b7c

"San Jose at-large comrades have written in asking for local status and for membership for five students just recruited to the YSA there. With the addition of these five people the local there will have eight members. The at-large members in San Jose have been active for some time doing CABS work, selling the YS and Militant, and participating in a local socialist club.

"Motion: To accept the five San Jose applicants into the YSA and to give the San Jose YSA local status.

"Discussion: [REDACTED] b7c

"Motion passed.

3. MALCOLM X - [REDACTED] b7c

"There is a lot of interest in the ideas of MALCOLM X at this time. It is the duty of the YSA to get these ideas out to as many people as possible. For this reason the N.O. will send a letter to the locals with suggestions on how they can carry out this important work.

"Box 471
Cooper Station
New York, New York 10003

"Dear Comrades,

NY 100-133479

"There is great interest in the ideas of MALCOLM X at this time. During the next months each local should try to do whatever can be done to get the ideas of MALCOLM X out. Some suggestions on how this might be done are the following:

"1. A new pamphlet, Two Speeches by MALCOLM X, has just been printed by Pioneer Publishers, 5 E. 3rd St., N.Y., N.Y. 10003. The pamphlet is already out so that it can be ordered right away. Sales of the Vietnam pamphlet and the YS have been good all over the country, so that there should be time to push this pamphlet.

"2. Meetings can be held featuring tapes of MALCOLM's speeches. Tapes are available in Chicago at $2.00 attape. Orders should be sent to [REDACTED] b7c

[REDACTED] Tapes on hand are the following:

"a. MALCOLM X speaking to the N.Y. Militant Labor Forum April 8, 1964, after he split with the Muslims.

b. MALCOLM X speaking to the Militant Labor Forum, Jan_ 7, 1965.

c. MALCOLM X speaking to New York City College students Nov. 7, 1963 before breaking with the Muslims.

d. Speech on MALCOLM X by [REDACTED] given at the Memorial Meeting for MALCOLM X at the Detroit Militant Labor Forum. b7c

"3. Pioneer Publishers is planning to put out a pamphlet of the speech by [REDACTED] to the Detroit Memorial Meeting. This will be very good to sell to people who want to get a history of MALCOLM's developments as a revolutionary and a clear understanding of his ideas. b7c

"4. A record of MALCOLM X's speech to the Grass Roots Conference in Detroit has been made available by the Afro-American Broadcasting Co. in Detroit. This speech was made to a large audience

NY 100-133479

"just before MALCOLM broke with the Muslims. You may order this record by writing [REDACTED] b7c [REDACTED] For orders of under 10 records the cost is $3.98 per record. For orders of over 10 the cost is $2.48 per record.

"Report to the March 11, 1965 NEC on the Vietnam March b7c [REDACTED] The March on Washington preparations have passed the first critical stage and it looks like the first explicitly anti-war national student demonstration will definitely take place. This is a big step forward from the 'peace' demonstrations of previous years. More important, the YSA will play a leadership role in many areas in mobilizing people to go on the march. The call is one we have endorsed and can politically support. We are getting the chance to show that we are not a 'sectarian' group as we have been slandered in the past.

"Our tour speakers are distributing buttons and calls and are helping to persuade people to go on the march. The SDS has maintained its policy of allowing all groups to sell and pass out literature on the march. This is the first time such a large march has had this explicit policy.

"The policy for signs according to SDS is that SDS will silk screen signs for the march and will ask everyone to carry these signs. The slogans are not yet determined, but there will be a spectrum of different slogans such as 'Withdraw Troops' and 'Negociate' etc. These signs will not even say SDS. SDS is encouraging people to bring signs indicating their schools

"and cities so that the march will reflect clearly a broad geographical representation. We had encouraged SDS to allow organizations to bring signs with their organizations on them, but we do not consider this key. If the SDS slogans are not pro-Johnson and if SDS continues to stick to its present policy concerning literature sales, the march will certainly have an anti-Johnson and militant tone and will be more free than former marches. We will co-operate with the sign policy of SDS so long as the slogans chosen are in agreement with the line of the call. In areas where sympathy demonstrations are being held we will push for an 'everybody bring your own signs' policy with any signs being drawn up by sponsoring organizations to reflect the line of the call.

"As soon as definite information on what the slogans will be comes out, we will notify the locals.

b7c

██████████ Reports on the progress of local March on Washington Committees have come in from around the country. In some areas committees have been formed which welcome all tendencies and which are signing up people for the March on the basis of the call. Such is the case in Philadelphia, Detroit and Minneapolis. Ann Arbor has reported that SDSers are willing to sell our pamphlet at their literature tables. In Boston arrangements have been made for us to send ██████████ to a large number of schools in different parts of New England. In some areas there has been some trouble with Stalinists, Social Democrats or FLers trying to exclude us. Berkeley reports that the DuBois Club is doing what it can to make this march reflect their own pro-Johnson views. A general rule seems to be that we have a better opportunity to help build united committees if we get bargaining power by actively building the march and organizing schools in the area so that our opponents find it difficult to rationalize excluding us.

Malcolm Double-Xd From Within: 37X

By WILLIAM FEDERICI and HENRY LEE

Malcom X was the victim of treachery by a fanatic "third group" that has infiltrated both his organization and the parent Black Muslim sect, a long-time associate of the murdered leader told THE NEWS last night.

According to Charles 37X, who followed Malcolm out of prophet Elijah Muhammad's fold, Elijah could gain nothing by killing Malcolm. And the bombing of a regular Muslim temple in Harlem was not a retaliatory gesture by Malcolm's followers, he added.

"We think we know who ordered the killing," Charles 37X said. "The bombing of the temple and the murder of Malcolm were not done by Muslims. Nothing can be gained by Muslims rising against one another."

Fears Vengeance Killings

"There are other elements implicated who have everything to gain. The Muslims from both sides know who they are. This is not a time for brother to kill brother."

The 45-year-old associate of Malcolm confirmed earlier disclosures by THE NEWS that the killers and bombers come from the Revolutionary Action Movement, a Negro terrorist group that follows the Red Chinese line and is dedicated to violence.

James Farmer, national director of CORE, speaking to newsmen at convocation ceremonies yesterday at Adelphi University in Garden City, L. I., also blamed "a third party" Malcolm's murder, he said, "was calculated to produce more violence and murder and vengeance killings."

Assistant Chief Inspector Joseph L. Coyle reported his detectives are "on the right track" in the murder investigation. Other sources indicated that police have obtained movies taken at the Audubon Ballroom Sunday when Malcolm was slain as he addressed 400 followers. 2

Why They Left Elijah

Charles 37X told why he and Malcolm left the parent body: "Elijah played the fiddle and brought his people to the brink many times, but then would stop and call them back. Elijah will do nothing for the black people, and this is why Malcolm was at odds with him."

But when Malcolm set up shop for himself, Charles disclosed, "we were infiltrated by a highly-trained intellectual group who were definitely Communists or Socialists."

"Malcolm was a beautiful tool to be used unwittingly," he said. "He was fiery, he was articulate."

Charles said he and several other close supporters warned Malcolm that they were being gradually taken over, and not by supporters of the prophet, but he shrugged off their warnings.

Letter to Egypt

During the Harlem riots last summer, Malcolm was in Egypt, and the takeover elements accelerated their efforts, Charles said.

"I sent a letter to Malcolm, begging him to come home," he disclosed. "I knew Malcolm might have been able to calm the young hotheads who were pushed into the riots."

"But he wrote back: 'You are guilty again of looking at one tree in the middle of the forest,' Malcolm wouldn't understand that I was watching and seeing these people pushing the black folk into rioting. I was getting sick watching this."

"When Malcolm came back and preached a little differently, the other group got restless. He was no longer the tool they'd had. All the whites weren't devils."

Planned by Pros

When he attended the Audubon Ballroom meeting, Charles said, he sensed something was wrong. At the door, no one was checking for guns. When he asked about it, he was told to mind his business.

Then he tried to warn Malcolm, he said, but the Black Nationalist told him, "I'm with my people here, I have nothing to worry about."

As usual, a shield of supporters protected Malcolm from the front, but after an hour, the shield was shifted. "This disturbed me," Charles 37X said.

Shortly afterwards came the fusillade of shots that cut down Malcolm. "I hit the ground," Charles 37X said. "I'm No. 2 to get knocked off in this."

The assassination, he said, was professionally planned and executed. "If it had been done in a frenzy," he said, "it would not have been done so well." Similarly, the mosque bombing was a professional job, rather than hot-headed retaliation by Malcolm's followers, he insisted.

Malcolm's now leaderless group of more than 1,000 is being reorganized by a half dozen of his associates, Charles reported. He wants no part of them, he said, and he suspects the new leaders will be figureheads.

At the Unity funeral home, 2352 Eighth Ave. at 126th St., heavily guarded by police, including sharpshooters on rooftops, crowds again queued up to view Malcolm's body.

Bomb Threat Received

In early afternoon, a telephoned bomb threat was received, and the two-story building was evacuated while the bomb squad searched the premises. Later, the public viewing was resumed. A number of children showed up during the noon hour.

A bomb threat also was received at the Faith Temple, Church of God in Christ, 147th St. and Amsterdam Ave., where services are scheduled for Saturday at 9:30 A.M.

At Bellevue Hospital, uniformed and plainclothes police protected Talmadge Hayer, 22, one of the suspected assassins. Hayer, who was shot and also suffered a broken thigh bone during the melee, will undergo surgery soon, the hospital said.

In Criminal Court, bespectacled Reuben Francis, 33, of 871 E. 179th St., Bronx, one of Malcolm's bodyguards who assertedly shot Hayer, was continued in $10,000 bail yesterday for a hearing March 3 on charges of felonious assault and Sullivan Law violation.

Elijah Guards Spin A Tizzy Over Gift

Chicago, Feb. 24 (AP)—Police guarding Elijah Muhammad from assassins intercepted a suspicious crate at the Black Muslim leader's home today but bomb squad experts, after an examination, pronounced the contents—a grandfather clock—harmless.

A flurry of activity broke out at the sect leader's 19-room South Side mansion when a truck pulled up at the front entrance.

Police halted the driver who announced he was delivering a crated grandfather's clock from a Philadelphia department store to Muhammad.

Bodyguards from the sect's Fruit of Islam elite corps said Muhammad had not ordered a clock. Three police specialists in explosives opened the crated

Malcolm Aides Seek Funds to Defend Guard

By KENNETH GROSS

A photograph of assassinated Black Nationalist leader Malcolm X—blown up larger than life—dominated the meeting.

Under that black-framed portrait, the men closest to Malcolm in life stood and spoke of their lost leader at the Militant Labor Forum, 116 University Pl., Friday night.

It was the first public appearance of the men in Malcolm's movement since Sunday, Feb. 21, when three men gunned down the 39-year-old former Black Muslim in Harlem's Audubon Ballroom.

Take No Chances

Members of the forum were not taking any chances on violence at their meeting and stationed, at intervals around the crowded room, white and Negro guards who faced the audience.

"There was a house on 113th St. where 11 or 12 of us planned the movement to free the black man," said James 3X Shabazz, now president of the New York Mosque Malcolm founded after leaving the Black Muslims.

There were about 100 in the room. The meeting was called to raise money for defense of Reuben Francis 32, free on $10,000 for allegedly wounding one of Malcolm's assassins. They raised $317.35.

Answers Questions

"I'm not supposed to talk about this too much," said Francis, "but I merely want to assure you that, of the charges brought against me I'm innocent."

There were questions, which Shabazz answered. A woman asked what would become of the movement now that Malcolm was gone.

"We have problems," he said. Apparently Malcolm's older sister, Mrs. Ella Mae Collins of Boston, will take charge of the Organization of Afro-American Unity. Shabazz will apparently head the mosque.

Benefit Shows Set For Malcolm's Family

An April 23 Apollo Theatre benefit show with such top names as Sammy Davis, Brook Benton, Dick Gregory and Michael Olatunji and a June 6 jazz festival and fashion show at the home of the Sidney Poitiers in Pleasantville, N.Y., have been planned to aid the family of the late Malcolm X.

Mrs. Sidney Poitier, chairman of the Committee of Concerned Mothers which is raising funds to give the family a home and help to provide for the education of the children, said interest in the two affairs was high with scores of entertainers agreeing to participate.

To date, Mrs. Poitier revealed, over $6,000 has been raised to aid the family and the two planned events are expected to raise several thousand dollars more.

Meanwhile the Manhattan Division of the Protestant Council revealed that it has raised $1,700 as of March 19 for the Educational Fund for the Children of Malcolm X in Harlem churches. Malcolm X died leaving his family broke and with his wife expecting a fifth child this fall.

Trustees of the Educational Fund are the Reverends W. Sterling Carey, Grace Congregational Church; Rev. John Hicks, St. Marks Methodist Church; Rev. Eugene Callender, Church of the Master.

Also Rev. Neville Simmons-Smith, Beulah Wesleyan; Rev. C. Joseph Coles, Williams Institutional; Rev. James Gunther, Transfiguration Church; Rev. Harold Hunt, Grace Congregational; Rev. Ken Verbulst, Manhattan Christian Reform Church; Rev. Dearing King, Friendship Baptist; and Rev. Bernard Holiday, of the Upper Manhattan Protestant Council.

Funds for the Educational Fund can be sent to the Freedom National Bank, 275 W. 125th St.

Malcolm X An Electric Prodder

By EMMETT J. MARSHALL, SR.

I could not subscribe to the racial concept of Malcolm X. His experiences were different from mine. In my travels at home and abroad I found some surprisingly good white people and needless to say, some awfully mean and disagreeable Negroes. However, the crux of the matter is, there are eighteen states in this union which have laws against Negroes loving white people. At this moment the state of Virginia has jailed a couple of white and black because they dared love each other, they married. That is against the law in Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, Wyoming, Oklahoma, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, West Virginia and all of the deep south. So the racists may well forbid by law that black and white should love each other. Now the same race baiters want to have a Congressional investigation leading to a law that would forbid the black man from hating the white. It's "gin" the law to love 'em. Some are trying to kill Dr. King because he loves 'em so much he won't hit back if they spit in his face. They probably sent a hired killer to exterminate Malcolm X for hating them. What will be our punishment if we refrain from hating or loving, but just like 'em?

If Malcolm X was an evil force, he and the force he generated were and are necessary evils. As long as there is a Sheriff Clark in Alabama who would brutalize Negroes because they are determined to be good citizens, as long as there are Sheriff Lawrence Rainey and his deputies in Mississippi who would hate to give freedom to the dark Americans to the degree that he and his several deputies are charged with slaying three civil rights workers, Michael Scheerner, Andrew Goodman and James Chaney, as long as there are white haters who would blow up a church and kill little Sunday School girls — as long as such crimes exist, we are going to have a Malcolm X.

The tragedy is that the two black groups are now fighting each other. We must not counsel killing, but if these black men just have killing in their blood there is a sheriff in Selma and some in Mississippi. I believe in prayer but Dr. King's prayers have not changed these evil sheriffs. Is anything wrong with using Malcolm X's method? One day the radio tells us "there's a white man armed. He hates Negroes." That's the understatement of the century. The white men that are dangerously armed against Negroes are quite a number and those that hate are not a few. The hate exhibits itself in many ways. When Malcolm X's home was bombed firemen and police tended to believe that Malcolm bombed his own home to gain publicity. Both questioned him along that line but never looked for the bomber. Not much difference between that and the Mississippi officials who said the three civil rights workers were in hiding to gain publicity, when, in truth, they knew the workers had been killed if not with their aid, certainly with the hatemongers blessing.

Malcolm X, the tormentor of the white man's conscience is sorely needed in this country where car loads of armed white men can order a church to dismiss its minister and have that order obeyed, dismiss him because he teaches his parishioners to register and vote. So it was in Selma last Sunday. For every car load of race hating crackers we need its complement of dedicated, determined Malcolms. Remember such white haters are out gunning for Dr. King because he "loves 'em." They wanted Malcolm dead because he hated 'em. What would be our penalty if we just like 'em—murder?

Cruel Treatment By Whites Drove Malcolm To Preach Hate

Malcolm X, the Black Nationalist leader was buried last Saturday a martyr to his cause. His death has set rumors flying that there will be violence within the ranks of the opposing sects of the Muslim faith ... the followers of Elijah Muhammad and the supporters of the late Malcolm.

Also set in motion is the cardinal question—Why was Malcolm bitter? Why did he preach hate?

A check of the record on Malcolm's life might well be the cause. He suffered numerous pains of humiliation and indignation during his life because of his color in addition to those heaped upon him by the memory of his parents' experiences with vicious whites.

Malcolm X was born 38 years ago in Omaha, Nebraska, where his birthplace was set afire by the Ku Klux Klan. Twice he saw the night-riding, robed Ku Kluxers burn his family from their home. The second burning took place in Lansing, Michigan, where his family had moved. He said that a white man had raped his mother — something he could never forget.

Malcolm's father had been a Baptist minister and once belonged to the Marcus Garvey organization. He had joined in the early stages of the Garvey movement. Garvey was a Negro who advocated the building of a black nation in Africa and the return of American Negroes to bolster its growth. Garvey raised quite a bit and several other phases of business. When he seemed to be getting strong and powerful, his foes finally toppled him and the movement finally faded.

A reporter who talked to Malcolm last year, said Malcolm told him that his father was a clergyman and a Christian and it was Christians who burned his homes in both places — people who preach brotherhood and religious tolerance.

Malcolm's family later lived in New York and Boston and he gained a reputation for shrewdness in the Harlem ghetto and became a small time racketeer while he was still in his teens.

He admitted to serving two prison terms for robbery. It was during one of these that he said he learned of the teachings of Elijah Muhammad.

He became very close to the Muslims and after leaving the prison he took the place of leadership in the movement and became a spokesman for the call. He gave his stage name back to the white man and became Malcolm X. He explained his conversion to the press as a six year history of drugs and addiction within St. Louis. It also gave him the post of Elijah's secretary.

As minister of mosque number 7 in New York, he began to emerge as a personality that overshadowed the Muslim movement, according to the spokesman for the group.

In 1963 and 1964 there were rumors of a power struggle between Malcolm and Chicago based Elijah Muhammad.

Finally Malcolm broke with the Muslims, after Muhammad forbade him to make further utterances following a remark about the death of President John F. Kennedy. He carried with him a number of followers. He said his organization would place emphasis on black people and the political activities that formed social action against the oppressors.

He was a very vocal personality and a controversial figure. He demanded respect from his followers and some of his followers

He had capacity crowds when he made his appearances. He once admitted studying evangelist Billy Graham's speaking techniques.

He was the personality that made the movement known and showed his many followers the political aspects of the movement.

The tension between the two groups grew hotter and Malcolm finally declared there was a split on his life. His home in Long Island was bombed and he and his family barely escaped. Then on that fatal Sunday, November 21, 1965, at a Harlem rally meeting and Malcolm fell to the platform fatally wounded by gunshot bullets.

But had not so many things happened to him like a boy, Malcolm might not have grown to hate the white man as he did and might never have met Elijah.

MALCOLM X

The man held this week was identified as Thomas B X Johnson, 30, a tall, neatly dressed Negro with a thin mustache, who once served as an elite

Five men are believed to have participated in the February 21 slaying of Malcolm as he arose to address a rally in the ballroom in upper Harlem. Two were reportedly decoys, while the other three gunned down Malcolm with
